Free Writing: The Stadium

Today you are going to be using the Pobble 365 picture prompt called The Stadium. You can view it at https://www.pobble365.com/the-stadium/ or just use this document. Today's session starts with a quick grammar warm up before you begin your writing. Make sure you mark your grammar activity when you have finished.

Grammar Warm up: Commas for meaning. The following pairs of sentences are exactly the same except how the commas has been used. For each pair, write down why they are different. .

The lighthouse, keeper and his dog were very old.
The lighthouse keeper and his dog were very old.

The difference between these sentences is

She likes Amy, who plays netball, better than Tina.
She likes Amy who plays netball better than Tina.

The difference between these sentences is

Stop deer crossing.
Stop, deer crossing.

The difference between these sentences is

May I paint mum?
May I paint, mum?

The difference between these sentences is

Free Writing Task

Story starter!

This place had once been filled with noise, thousands upon thousands of excited fans cheering as they applauded 'the beautiful game' being played in front of them.

Now, all that remained were memories. Would this place ever be restored to its former glory?

Pebble.com

This is your picture and story starter for this week.

Step 1: Choose your form. Are you going to write a story, newspaper article or something else?

Step 2: Plan your writing. You could use the story Box It Up format on the next page, draw a story map or another method of your choice.

Step 3: Write your piece. Don't forget to check your work before submitting it to Google Classroom. We are very excited to see what you come up with!

Opening Describe your setting. Introduce your main character.
Build- Up
Problem
Resolution
Ending	