

Grammar Week 2 Home Learning

Session 1

Complete the 'Possessive Pronouns and Adjectives' activity.

Hint: In grammar, the term possession means that something belongs to someone or something else.

Possessive pronouns include mine, hers, yours.

Session 2

Complete the 'Punctuating Direct Speech' activity.

Hint: Remember you need inverted commas (") to show where the direct speech starts and stops. Don't forget that you need punctuation (, ? !) before your closing inverted commas.

Remember to start a new line for a new person speaking.

For example: "Help!" screamed the girl as she slipped on the ice.

"I warned you not to wear those shoes," dad replied, "because they have no grip!"

Session 3

Complete the 'Indirect or Direct Speech?' activity.

Hint:

Direct speech: "Hello," said the girl. "My name is Julie."

Indirect speech: When she approached, the girl said her name was Julie.

Possessive Pronouns and Adjectives

Underline the possessive pronouns in these sentences.

1. "These toys are all mine," said James.
2. Simon has put his toys in the box.
3. "I bought ours to school yesterday," said Lucy.

Underline the possessive adjectives in these sentences

1. His sister is very talented.
2. Their friends are late.
3. Its fur is very soft.

Rewrite the following sentences using possessive adjectives instead of possessive pronouns.

1. This clarinet is mine. \longrightarrow This is my clarinet.
2. This sweet is yours.
3. These cakes are ours.
4. This dog is theirs.
5. These pencils are hers.

Write sentences using these pairs of possessive pronouns.

1. yours ours

[illegible]

2. mine his

Punctuating Direct Speech

Punctuate these direct speech sentences.

1. What are you doing asked Mum
2. If we hurry up said John we will catch the bus
3. This milkshake is delicious exclaimed Helen You must let me know how you made it

Write direct speech sentences using these words.

1. whispered the secret agent

2. sobbed the woman

Rewrite this passage, adding the punctuation and capital letters.

if we are going to go to the cinema we had better hurry up shouted mum it was ten minutes to seven and tamsin was still doing her hair the film started at half past seven and it took at least half an hour to get there i'm nearly ready called tamsin i'll be down in a minute

Direct or Indirect Speech?

Punctuate each sentence. Think carefully about whether it is direct or indirect speech.

1. One of the school buses has broken down explained the teacher
2. We were told to sit quietly and wait
3. Why can't we just walk moaned Ben
4. Lucy wanted to know why it was taking so long

Write the words in the speech bubble as direct and indirect speech.

Direct speech _____

Indirect speech _____

Write a direct speech and indirect speech sentence about each picture.

Direct speech _____

Indirect speech _____

Direct speech _____

Indirect speech _____

