

Writing - Summer 2 Week 1 - Home Learning

Session 3

In this session, you will be revising the use of quotations. You might already be an expert at writing down quotation from our learning about newspaper articles, but it's worth recapping to ensure you get them just right.

How to share your work:

- Write your answers into your exercise book and take a picture of your work.
- Type your answers directly into the boxes on this page or use Google Docs to edit.

Once you've completed the work, submit your work to Google Classroom following this set of instructions:

1. Go to classroom.google.com
2. Click the class - Classwork - the assignment.
3. To attach an item, click 'Add or create' and select 'Google Drive', 'Link' or 'File' depending on what type of file you have created.
4. The status of your work will change to 'Turned in'.

Quotation Knowledge

Listen to what James Bond - who is known by his code number 007 - has to say about this must-have phone: "I thought I had every gadget I required until Q invented the Multi-function Mobile Phone. Now I wouldn't possibly attempt a mission without it."

1. Choose the person you want to quote: It shouldn't be someone random! They need to have something useful to say about what you are writing about or be very well known to back you up.
E.g. a scientist a doctor a previous owner
 an inventor a witness an expert on the topic
2. Tell the reader more about them: As you can see in the example, you can use punctuation to drop in extra information about the person. This could be where they are from, where they work or their experience on the subject. Brackets, dashes and commas can be used to do this.
3. Get your speech punctuation right: As you can see in the example, we need to have the speech marks or inverted commas before the person starts talking and ending when they stop talking but AFTER the full stop!
4. Introduce your speech with a colon: If you have introduced your speech with a full sentence that makes sense on its own, you should use a colon.

Dr Marc Newton, the gadget supremo from Oxford University, has been testing spy gadgets for decades: "Of all the gadgets I have tested, the Spy Car 3000 is the greatest invention. It is a mind-blowing contraction."

Spy Glasses

House Cleaner

Homework Machine

Spy Watch

Bedroom Cleaner
