

Reading in Nursery

- Looks at books independently and with care.
- Recognises some familiar words, such as their name and advertising logos.
- Enjoys rhyming and rhythmic activities and recognises rhythm in spoken word.
- Shows awareness of rhyme and alliteration.
- Listens to stories with increasing attention and recall and joins in with repeated phrases.
- Beginning to be aware of the way that stories are structured and suggests how a story might end.
- Describes main story settings, events and characters.
- Links sounds to letters and can sound some letters of the alphabet.

