Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: World Book Day

Prizes:

Following on from our email on the 14th February 2019, regarding World Book Day, we would now like to explain how your child could be in with the chance of winning a World Book Day prize.

In previous years, prizes have been given for outfit choices. This year, however, we have decided to build on our love of reading further and award prizes for completing a piece of homework based on their favourite book.

All we ask is that each child completes a book review of their all-time favourite book. Although we have attached several formats which could be printed out and used, it is also acceptable for children to be more creative in making their own book review format. The choice is theirs.

Costumes:

As explained in the email, we do not expect parents to spend a lot of money on costumes, but to remember that sometimes the best costumes can be simple and homemade. Also attached is a document which gives examples of some easy costume ideas which can be found in most children's wardrobes.

Dates:

Don't forget: This year, Wooden Hill will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 7th March. It is on this day that children who wish to enter the prize competition must have brought in their final book review as winners will be chosen and prizes awarded during Friday afternoon's assembly.

Thank you for your continued support. We cannot wait to see the costumes and read the reviews.
